NUMBER 236

SEMINOLE POSTOFFICE ENTERED BY ROBBERS

$250 AND $30 IN STAMPS ARE TAKEN.

Clerk Discovered Robbery at 9 O'clock in Morning—Registered Letters Missing.

Shawnee, Ok., Jan. 2.—Effecting an entrance into the postoffice at Seminole, Okla., at an early hour yesterday morning a gang of postoffice robbers looted the place and escaped with $250 in money, $20 in two-cent stamps and $10 in one-cent stamps, as well as a number of registered letters which are believed to have contained large sums of money. One hundred and fifty-five money orders, numbered consecutively from 3646 to 3800, as well as blank advices to pay the same, consists of part of the swag secured.

The robbery was discovered by a postoffice clerk at 9:15 o'clock yesterday morning, when the clerk arrived at the postoffice.

Letters, papers and other postal paraphernalia were strewn about the floor, while a rear window which had been removed in order to permit of easy access to the postoffice, had been carefully placed back in position again, indicating that the robbers had worked at leisure.

Inspector W. J. Vickery of Kansas City, Mo., in charge of the southwestern postal district, as well as Inspector Leahy at Guthrie, were immediately notified by telephone of the robbery.

Telephone communication was held with Postmaster W. S. Cade of this city and local police were also notified of the robbery.

Advices of the affair were also sent to the chief postal inspector at Washington, D. C., and it is expected that a postal inspector of the federal government will arrive in Oklahoma within a few days to investigate the series of postoffice robberies which have occurred during the past month.

All of the money, stamps and money orders secured were locked in a drawer of a desk in the Seminole postoffice. Rubber stamps bearing the signature of the Seminole postmaster were taken by the robbers, but it is not believed that any of the money orders will ever be cashed.

No clue to the robbers has been secured.

Coming as it did on the heels of the attempted postal robbery at Harrah, thirty-six hours previous, announcement of the effective get-away of the men who robbed the postoffice at Seminole created considerable excitement in that village, which is located sixteen miles east of Shawnee on the Rock Island.

HALF THE MEAT IS UNSPECTED

BUREAU CHIEF SEES SERIOUS DANGER TO PUBLIC FROM MEAT EATING.

SANITARY CONDITIONS POOR

Lack of Authority Causes Inefficiency.
Power of Government Limited to Interstate Business,
Says Report.

Washington, Jan. 3.—That half the meat eaten in the United States can be called uninspected and that a real and serious danger to the public exists as a result, is one of the conclusions reached by Dr. A. D. Melvin, chief of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, in his annual report to the Secretary of Agriculture.

Inefficiency of the government inspection because of its lack of authority to reach business done entirely within a state is given as one of the causes, and Dr. Melvin points out the great need of supplementing the government inspection of meats with state and municipal inspections.

One result of the Federal inspection is to cause the diversion of diseased and suspicious looking animals to the uninspected establishments, where they are slaughtered for the local market, says the report.

"Many cities have an inspection service, but very few have an adequate force, and the inspection often consists of merely examining the meat as offered for sale in the markets, when it is usually impossible to detect disease, the evidence of which may have been removed with the viscera or organs," says Dr. Melvin.

"As a rule, sanitary conditions are very bad at uninspected slaughterhouses and in order to provide real protection against diseased or unwholesome meat a competent veterinary and sanitary inspection at the time of slaughter is essential."

Despite the shortcomings of the inspection, it has many advantages, and is producing results which are increasing from year to year, Dr. Melvin shows in his report. With the new year, a steady improvement in the sanitation of packing houses has been brought about, and as a result there has been a considerable decrease in the amount of meat condemned in the inspections.

Notwithstanding the efforts to give a competent inspection, the service has been unjustly attacked, the report asserts. The incident at East St. Louis is recalled, and Dr. Melvin says the charges there had their foundation in animus and not in fact. In some cases other attacks were the result of ignorance of conditions or misrepresentation of facts. Thorough investigation of some cases of ptomaine poisoning charged to meat proved that in not one of the instances could the trouble be properly ascribed to that cause. In other cases, typhoid fever had been found in schools where reports of ptomaine poisoning were circulated.

"Such instances," says Dr. Melvin, "should be sufficient to show that credence should not be placed in reports reflecting against the meat inspection."

In a force of 2,500 people engaged in inspecting meat, Dr. Melvin declares, it would not be unusual if some one were found unworthy. All men are liable to errors in judgment and considering the immense amount of meat inspected, if it should happen that meat which should be condemned were passed, the amount was such an infinitesimal part of the entire quantity that it did not affect the value and the integrity of the service as a whole.

More than 36,000,000 animals were inspected at the time of slaughter during the fiscal year just closed, and more than 1,000,000 were condemned in whole or in part. On reinpection more than 25,000,000 pounds of meat and meat products were condemned which had become unwholesome since inspection at the time of slaughter.

The inspection service had an appropriation of $3,000,000 to do business on during the year, and spent $2,884,000.

INDIANS SUFFERING FROM TUBERCULOSIS

VALENTINE SAYS THE DISEASE
SHOULD BE CHECKED.

Advocate's Appropriating Funds to Establish Medical Corps for Race.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Tuberculosis stands at the head of the diseases which afflict the Indian.

This is the statement made in the annual report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs Valentine. That disease is on the increase is further stated, but methods are being employed by which it is hoped to eliminate the disease as far as possible.

Three hundred and three government schools were conducted during the past fiscal year, this being a net increase of 22. The report concludes:

There is no authority under existing law, for leasing for mining purposes, the tribal lands of reservations that have been established by executive order. There are several such reservations rich in minerals, and one in particular in Arizona, containing large deposits of tufa stone, which, it is hoped, congress will by appropriate legislation enable the Indians to make use of.

"The domestic life of the Indians, the sanctity and purity of the marriage relation, is a matter of prime importance and should be protected by stringent laws in accord with the most advanced and best marriage and divorce laws among the whites. The secretary of the interior should be given power to enforce a purer mode of living among the Indians by withholding their annuities when they are found to be living openly in adulterous relations.

Advocates Medical Corps.

In order to handle successfully the many problems of sanitation and those arising from epidemics and diseases to which Indians are peculiarly susceptible, such as pneumonia, consumption and trachoma, legislation appropriating sufficient sums for the establishment of a medical corps should be enacted.

An industrial corps similar in its administrative features to the medical corps above outlined, should be established, with headquarters in the field with a view to the industrial education of the Indians, male and female, and whose duty it should be to educate the Indians in such industries that they might become self-supporting.

BIG STORE BURNS.

Tushka Establishment Loses to the Amount of $15,000.

Atoka, Okla., Jan. 3.—The Farmers' Trading company's big store and all its contents burned yesterday at Tushka, a small town about five miles south of Atoka in this county, with an estimated loss of $10,000 on the stock and $5,000 on the building. On the stock there was $8,700 insurance. The fire started some time about the middle of the night and when discovered the whole interior was a mass of flames.

The origin of the fire is not known as yet. Some clerks had been in the store a short time before the discovery but say the fire in the stove was almost out and so there seems to be a mystery as to how the fire originated.

Tushka has no water works and buckets were resorted to but with no avail, only the saving of adjoining buildings.

Bryan to Jamaica.

William Jennings Bryan, the great commoner, despite his continued defeat for the presidency, is everywhere entertained with honors almost equal to what he would receive if he really held the office. After lavish entertainment by the authorities while visiting Havana, Cuba, he is journeying to Jamaica, where similar hospitality is being planned in his honor.

MORSE STARTS TO SOUTH PRISON

FORMER BANKER LEAVES NEW YORK FOR FEDERAL PRISON ON AT ATLANTA.

TRIES FOR CHEERFULNESS

Wife and Sons Visit Him in Tombs but Banker is Too Affected to Say Anything—Reaches Atlanta Today.

New York, Jan. 2.—With a supreme effort to be cheerful, but with emotion occasionally getting the better of him, Charles W. Morse left New York today to begin serving a fifteen year sentence in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., imposed upon him for violation of the National banking laws.

Before leaving the Tombs, where he had been confined for the greater part of last year, Morse received his wife and two sons and then the newspaper men. He was too affected to say anything, but he handed out a carefully prepared statement of comment on his case. The general understanding was that his wife was to accompany him South, but it could not be ascertained whether she was on the same train with him.

Morse left Jersey City at 10:45 a. m. in custody of Deputy United States Marshals. The party occupied staterooms.

Statement Dramatic.

Morse's statement is bitter and dramatic.

"I am going to Atlanta to begin penal servitude under the most brutal sentence ever pronounced against a citizen in a civilized country," is his opening sentence.

"I have hoped," the statement continues, "with that hope which comes from a consciousness of my innocence, that I will not have to close out forever the light and liberty of this world under such an inhuman sentence. I had felt that the fact that I had paid a fine of $7,000,000 and served a year in prison would satisfy the cry for a victim and I have steadily believed that the courts would be compelled to give me a new trial."

"When I learned that the private detectives of the prosecution were the keepers of the jury, that the jury drank like men upon a jaunt or a holiday, rather than citizens engaged in a serious service, and that as a result two of them were rendered unfit, I naturally hoped that I would be allowed another trial by another jury free from these hostile influences."

"It seems that the courts intend to establish the practices which make rum drinking a part of jury service, and that private detectives as the custodians of a jury in a permanent institution. By this sentence and judgment I may be brought to ruin; but the damage done to me is not half as important as the injury to the administration of justice. I am now up in years and must with the passing of time, pass also, but the record of my conviction and the way it was brought about will remain a lasting and dangerous example of a government gone mad in search of a victim."

"Whether I shall serve my full sentence I am not able to say; much depends upon how the government at Washington shall look upon it. I have great faith that all right thinking men and women who know of me and my case, and who realize the inhumanity of my sentence, will make their feelings known to the president."

"Whatever the future may hold in store—liberty or imprisonment—I shall endeavor to meet it in the same way I have struggled against the misfortunes of the last two years."

"C. W. MORSE."

Weeps for Sons.

A few minutes before the train's departure Harry and Benjamin Morse appeared for another farewell to their father. He gave them a fond embrace and wept as they left him.

Morse braced himself for a final picture at the hands of a crowd of

PROSPEROUS YEAR PREDICTED BY BIG MEN

NEW YORKERS ARE OPTIMISTIC
REGARDING 1910.

Unanimous Prediction for Prosperity
During the New Year by Prominent Men.

New York, Jan. 3.—Prominent men in New York City are optimistic regarding the outlook for the year 1910. Greater prosperity is their unanimous prediction. Here is what some of them say:

William Loeb, Jr., collector of port,—"I greet 1910 with hope and satisfaction. It will be prosperous if the present increase in the volume of business continues and indications are that it will."

Senator Chauncey M. Depew—"This New Year's day is marked by less unrest, dissatisfaction, mental dyspepsia, and crankiness than in any other in my recollection. It is full of hope for peace, prosperity and plenty."

W. C. Brown, president of New York Central—"In general the prosperity of 1910 will exceed the record of any previous year. I look for a general improvement and great development of the railways of the country."

Normal Teachers Return.

The following teachers in the Normal have returned from their Christmas vacation visits: Misses Rubel, Clark, Anderson, Knight, Case, Montague, Stegall, Mrs. Ganong, Mrs. McGuerrin.

The Wells-Fargo Express company on the Frisco railroad is now no more. This company was succeeded on the first of the new year by the United States Express company which of course, will enter the same territory on the Frisco as did the Wells-Fargo. The latter company has operated on the Frisco since that road entered Ada.

The same office force in this city will be retained, being F. M. Peterman, the agent, and Mrs. Peterman, the assistant who came here from Woodward three months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Peterman are very accommodating and capable officials and the public will be glad to know they are to stay.

C. M. Davenport the agent at Shawnee, is in Ada today acting in the capacity of auditor.

NIGHT RIDER WITNESS SHOT.

Citizens Aid Sheriff in Hunt for Assailant.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 3.—James Middleton, a farmer and principal witness in a night rider case set for trial this month, was shot from ambush last night and killed.

In the vicinity of Loxley, Middleton's home, there is much excitement and citizens aided the sheriff today in a futile attempt to capture the assassin.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

PEOPLE HAVING TOUGH TIME
KEEPING ON FEET.

Fellow Enroute to Texas Gets "Sore"
When Sympathy Is Extended
Him.

The walks today are in that condition which compels one to walk pigeon-toed, and causes many amusing incidents—to the other fellow.

The misty rain which has fallen all day, freezing as it falls, has put the walks in first class shape for skating and those persons who are not shod with rubbers assume all kinds of shapes in an effort to keep right side up.

Shortly after noon two fellows were making their way down Twelfth street, discussing Zelaya—or some body or something else. One of them was carrying a ten-gallon oil can when—Biff! Bing!—his heels had hit too hard and he and the can parted company. What the man said wasn't distinct, but it must have been something about the walk.

Another slippery incident occurred near the Frisco depot on that company's tracks. A fellow who said he was on his way to Denison was bearing the least amount of weight possible on the sleety surface when he decided he would cross the track. He cautiously placed a foot on a rail and gave a beautiful exhibition of arm-swinging in a desperate effort to recover his balance, but all in vain. His foot on the rail was replaced by his back. An Evening News reporter was near and endeavored to extend his sympathy when the fellow said, "It's none of your business," and shut up like a clam. Despite this, the reporter hopes he gets to Denison—and stays there.

To North Ada Subscribers.

The News man craves the most liberal indulgence of the North Ada subscribers for any failure of proper and regular delivery of the Daily during part of the past week. The North Ada route against all efforts to make good has lately suffered a run of bad luck. The reasons for any non delivery of papers have been mostly unavoidable. For instance Saturday evening the News boy was taken suddenly ill during the delivery, fell from his horse, had to be carried into the home of Mrs. McGraw and later taken home in a cab.

The newsboy's little brother who undertook to finish delivery was not well acquainted with the route and therefore missed a few subscribers.

TWO POSTOFFICES IN THE CITY OF ADA

The other day down the street there occurred a heated argument between two individuals regarding the number of postoffices in the city of Ada. One of the young gentlemen insisted that Ada supported two postoffices and the other was as equally insistent that there was only one post-office.

The majority of the assembled audience appeared to side in with the two postoffice fellow. Since two such highly estimable gentlemen as Judge U. G. Winn and Hon. J. W. Beard are applicants for the Ada postoffice it were highly desirable there be two postoffices in Ada. Ada is big enough for two postoffices any way.

MAKING BOND, IS CAUGHT

JOE PERKINS RETURNED TO ADA
TODAY.

Was Arrested at Mill Creek Yesterday—Date Examining Trial Not Set.

Joe Perkins was arrested yesterday and placed in jail on the combined charge of selling whiskey and horse stealing.

A warrant was issued on the 31st of last month for the former charge and a prominent lawyer of this city put up a cash bond of $300 for Perkins. This done, Perkins told his bondsman that he would go and get some money to be used as a fee for his defense, but he never returned with the fee. Instead, it is charged, he took a horse belonging to E. J. Rogers, who was in town from his farm near Ada, and skiddooed.

A warrant was then issued for Perkins' arrest for horse stealing and yesterday he was arrested at Mill Creek and was brought to the city today. His preliminary has not been set.

ADA SOCIAL MOVEMENTS.

Mrs. W. D. Hays will entertain tomorrow afternoon in honor of Mrs. R. W. Simpson's guests, Mrs. W. P. Long, of Tupelo, Miss.

Miss Minnie Lee Pool entertained 60 friends Saturday night at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pool, in Glenwood. They enjoyed games and refreshments were served.

Society at Holdenville.

Mesdames Howerton, Barton, Lucas, Hodges and Miss Gertrude Thompson spent New Year's day in Holdenville.

While there they, together with Miss Gertrude Case, who came down from Oklahoma City for the occasion, were the guests of Mrs. Alvis at one o'clock luncheon.

Later the entire party attended a joint reception of the XXth Century and Schubert clubs at the residence of Mrs. Lewis Lawson.

It is needless to say the ladies from here report a delightful time.

This interchange of courtesies between neighboring towns of Oklahoma indicate the advanced social progress of our new state.

Wallace Bruce Amsbury.

Wallace B. Amsbury, the great reader and interpreter will appear before the Ada public Tuesday evening, January 4, at the school building. He is especially good in James Whitcomb Riley productions, and the literary folk will be highly pleased with this number of the Lyceum course.
